4. The ETH notes the contents of the two defensive statements submitted by GM Solozhenkin to the ETH, as well as the report of the Investigatory Chamber (which investigated GM Solozhenkin's in-tournament cheating complaint against WFM Assaubayeva at the 2017 World Youth championships in Montevideo, Uruguay), and the reports by IA Hal Bond and Prof Kenneth Regan.
5. Having duly considered all the evidence, the ETH unanimously rules that:

 - 5.2.2 Half of the sanction period (9 months) is suspended for a period of 24 months on the condition that GM Solozhenkin is not found guilty of making unjustified accusations of cheating against, or otherwise unjustly injure the reputation of, any person committed during the period of suspension.
6. The ETH's written motivation with full reasons for the present decision is released simultaneously herewith.

7. The ETH requests the FIDE Secretariat to communicate the decision to GM Evgeniy Solozhenkin, Ms Liana Tanzharikova, the Russian Chess Federation and the FIDE Anti-Cheating Commission, and to publish the decision on the FIDE website.
